

Page 2F-1, Section 2F.01, Line 12
class of highways if permitted by statute.

Page 2F-1, Section 2F.01, Line 25
Distances to eligible services, except camping and attractions, should not exceed 5 km (3 mi) in either direction. Distances to camping and attractions should not exceed 25 km (15 mi) in either direction.

Page 2F-1, Section 2F.01, Lines 26 through 30

~~Option:~~

~~If, within the 5 km (3 mi) limit, facilities for the services being considered are not available or choose not to participate in the program, the limit of eligibility may be extended to 5 km (3 mi) increments until one or more facilities for the services being considered choose to participate, or until 25 km (15 mi) is reached, whichever comes first.~~

Page 2F-3, Section 2F.02, Lines 14 through 16

be represented on any sign or sign assembly. ~~If three types of services are shown on one sign, then the logo panels shall be limited to two for each service (for a total of six logo panels).~~ The legend and logo panels applicable to a service type shall be logo panels. ~~There shall be no more than four logo panels for one of the two service types on the same sign or sign assembly.~~ A Specific Service sign or sign assembly shall have no more than three types of services on the same sign or sign assembly. The permitted number of logo panels on a multi type service Specific Service sign or sign assembly are: 1) a maximum of two logo panels for each type service on a three service Specific Service sign or sign assembly; 2) a maximum of three logo panels for each type service on a two service Specific Service sign or sign assembly; and 3) a maximum of four logo panels for one type service and two logo panels for the other type service on a two service Specific Service sign or sign assembly.

Page 2F-6, Section 2F.04, Lines 26 & 27

Page 2F-7, Section 2F.06, Between lines 25 and 26

When longitudinal space permits, all Specific Service Signs should be installed before the interchange one (1) mile Advance Guide sign.

Page 2F-10, Section 2F.10, Line 4

signing policy that ~~includes, as a minimum,~~ considers the guidelines of Section 2F.01 and ~~at least~~

Page 2G-7, Section 2G.07, Line 28

that ~~includes~~ is developed from consideration of:

Page 2H-4, Section 2H.06, Lines 14 & 15

cultural interest area symbol signs. The educational plaque should remain in place for ~~at least 3 years~~ a sufficient time period after the initial installation. If used, the educational plaque should be the

Page 2I-1, Section 2I.01, Between Lines 2 & 3

Support:

Advance planning for transportation operations' emergencies is the responsibility of State and local authorities. The Federal Government provides guidance to States as necessitated by changing circumstances for some emergency types.

Standard:

Emergency Management signs shall be used to guide and control highway traffic during certain emergency types.

Emergency Management signs shall not permanently displace any of the standard signs that are normally applicable.

Page 2I-1, Section 2I.02, Lines 11 through 18

Standard:

~~Emergency Management signs shall be used to guide and control highway traffic during certain emergency types.~~

~~Emergency Management signs shall not permanently displace any of the standard signs that are normally applicable.~~

~~Advance planning for transportation operations' emergencies shall be the responsibility of State and local authorities. The Federal Government shall provide guidance to the States as necessitated by changing circumstances.~~

Page 2I-6, Section 2I.08, Between Lines 7 & 8

Support:

In the event of certain emergency types, State and local authorities establish various centers for civilian relief, communication, medical service, and similar purposes. To guide the public to such centers a series of directional signs can be used.

Page 2I-6, Section 2I-08, Lines 9 through 11

~~In the event of emergency, State and local authorities shall establish various centers for civilian relief, communication, medical service, and similar purposes. To guide the public to such centers a series of directional signs shall be used.~~